VIOLENT WIND STORM PASSES OVER THE TOWN OF OPELOUSAS.

MUCH DAMAGE REPORTED

Almost Completely Demolished the Extensive Buildings of the Saint Landry Cotton Oil Mill, Killing a Boy and Injuring a Man—Several Residences Demolished—Cyclone's Path Only 400 Feet Wide.

Opelousas, La., June 8.—A tornado passed across the extreme northwestern corner of this town during the afternoon and almost completely demolished the extensive buildings of the Saint Landry cotton oil mill, killed a white boy aged 14, named Albert Gautreaux, and seriously injured John Zoder, a young white man, both of whom were employed in the mill. The storm completely demolished the residences of W. B. Lewis, Willie Lewis and Ben Melancon, and damaged a portion of the office building of the Opelousas ice and bottling works. The path of the tornado was only about 400 feet wide.

AMERICA'S WISE CHOICE.

Rev. G. Campbell Morgan Selected to Carry on Mr. Moody's Work.

London, June 8.—The Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, who is leaving for the United States to take up a portion of the evangelistic work of Dwight L. Moody, had a great send-off at the city temple. The enormous building was packed by an enthusiastic audience. Dr. Parker, who presided, said:

"Because Mr. Morgan is being taken away I don't entertain a very friendly feeling to those across the Atlantic. My friends in America were wise in their choice of such a man as Morgan. To take Americans in bulk, which, by the way, we never could, is to handle a multitudinous, expressive quantity. "I have never known an unwise American. They always get the best of things, look out as we may. Let us think we are getting the better of them, we soon find we are mistaken. America is full of youthfulness, and there is much holy and unholiness in that most wonderful country."

Mr. Morgan said: "I am going away not because it is the call of America, but the call of God. I look forward with glad expectancy to the work before me."

NOT ALLOWED TO COMPETE.

New York Yacht Club Bars Independence From Trial Races.

New York, June 8.—Thomas W. Lawson's yacht, the Independence, will not be allowed to compete in the trial races preliminary to the races for the America's cup unless she shall be chartered by some member of the New York Yacht club who will enter her for such events as she may be qualified to take part in.

After a meeting of the challenge committee it was decided to return Mr. Lawson's proposition to charter the Independence to a number of New York Yacht club gentlemen who comprise the challenge committee.

SPANISH WAR CLAIMS.

Balance of Over Two Million Owing to the Various States.

Washington, June 8.—Mr. Rittman, the auditor for the war department, has prepared a table of the claims filed by the various states for the fitting out of volunteer troops during the Spanish war, the amounts allowed and paid on the claims and the balance claimed by the states to be due. The table shows that the claims filed amount to $5,880,179 and the amount allowed and paid $3,329,745. The balance claimed and unpaid is $2,550,444.

NEW PRESIDENT ELECTED.

Thomas F. Cole Now Head of the Minnesota Iron Company.

Duluth, June 8.—Thomas F. Cole, general manager of the mines of the United States Steel company, was elected president of the Minnesota Iron company at the annual meeting of that organization, and F. E. House, general manager of the Bessemer and Erie railroad, president of the Duluth and Iron Range Railroad company. F. H. White and R. Angst of Pittsburgh are new directors of the railroad company.

FOUR YEARS MORE TO SERVE.

Bob Ford's Slayer Has His Sentence Commuted.

Denver, Colo., June 8.—The state board of pardons has commuted to 18 years the life sentence of E. A. O'Kelly, the man who killed Bob Ford, the slayer of Jesse James. The killing occurred at Creed, Colo., and O'Kelly was sentenced on July 12, 1892, so that with allowance for good behavior he has only about four years to serve.

INDIANS TO RAID CHICAGO.

Pottawatomie Expedition to Seize the Lake Front.

St. Joseph, Mich., June 8.—The tribe of Pottawatomie Indians living in Van Buren county held a secret pow-wow at Hartford to listen to a report of scouts sent to Chicago. By a unanimous vote the tribe decided to start for Chicago June 22 under the leadership of Chief Isaac Quigno, the youngest and most daring full-blooded Indian of the tribe. Chief Charles Pokagon, son of the late Simon Pokagon, was deposed, together with his council of seven advisers, because of their lukewarm attitude, and Frank Williams, Frank Sawalk, J. H. Cushman, Stephen Topash, Joseph Motay, Charles Motay and Andrew Rupp were elected members of the new council. The Pottawatomies propose to invest the lake front of Chicago and then proceed to prove their claims to the land, which they believe will be sustained. If the Chicago claim is established they will squat on the lake front from the Indiana line to Grand Haven, Mich., which they say is their land by virtue of the same treaty upon which they base their Chicago claim.

IS OUT OF POLITICS.

Senator Towne Will Devote Ail of His Time to Money Getting.

Austin, Tex., June 8.—It was stated here that the charter of an oil company with a capital stock of $5,000,000 and in which the principal stockholders are former Senator Charles A. Towne of Minnesota, Governor Benton McMillan of Tennessee and former Governor J. S. Hogg, will be filed in the secretary of state's office here within the next few days. Senator Towne has purchased one-quarter of an acre of land in the proved oil district at Beaumont for $25,000. In an interview he said that he is out of politics for good and that henceforth he would devote all his time to money-making. Former Governor Hogg made a similar announcement a few weeks ago, soon after he began making big money in the Beaumont oil field, and a declaration of the same kind is expected soon from Governor McMillan.

INDIANS ARE QUIET.

Considerable Agitation Still Exists on Kiowa Reservation.

Washington, June 8.—The commissioner of Indian affairs received a telegram from Colonel Rundlett, Indian agent on the Kiowa reservation, saying that notwithstanding the agitation there all is quiet. Indian Inspector Nestor, who has charge of the allotment of lands among the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache Indians, notified the secretary of the interior by wire that he had completed and mailed his final schedule. There are about 3,000 of the allotments. This is the last step before the issuance of the president's proclamation in the matter of opening the Indian lands to settlement.

VERDICT FOR FULL AMOUNT.

Receiver for Guaranty Loan Company of Minnesota Wins Big Suit.

Boston, June 8.—A jury has returned a verdict of $133,380 for the plaintiff in the suit of W. E. Hall, receiver of the Northwestern Guaranty Loan company of Minnesota against Harriet Tyler, administratrix of the estate of Edwin A. Norton, in the United States district court. The plaintiff sought to enforce the liability of the defendant, interstate, as stockholder in the defunct loan company. Mr. Norton had 1,200 shares of the stock of the par value of $100 each, making his liability $120,000, which was the amount sued for. The verdict included interest.

NO IMPROVEMENT.

Mrs. McKinley Remains Just About the Same.

Washington, June 8.—Dr. Rixey at 10:30 p. m. made this statement as he left the White House:

"Mrs. McKinley is now resting comfortably. Her condition shows no change as compared with the situation announced in the morning bulletin.

"She has not lost any ground, nor on the other hand has there been any perceptible improvement. She is just the same as when we saw her in the morning."

REFUSED TO MARRY HIM.

Illinois Farmhand Kills a Widow and Commits Suicide.

Rockford, Ill., June 8.—Nels Nelson, a farmhand near Kingston, after the refusal of Mrs. John Ledig, a wealthy widow, to become his wife, shot and instantly killed her and seriously injured her sister, Mrs. Peter Wing. Nelson then blew his own brains out.

Capitalization of $2,000,000.

Beaumont, Tex., June 8.—The Export Oil and Pipe Line company, of which former Senator Charles A. Towne of Minnesota will be manager, will have a capitalization of $2,000,000. Governor Benton McMillan of Tennessee will be a director. The company holds land near Beaumont and Sour Lake, Tex., and in Calcasieu parish, La.

BUT ONE OF THEM LEFT

TWO OF THE THREE ONTARIO BANK ROBBERS MEET VIOLENT DEATHS.

SURVIVOR GETS 21 YEARS

Jones Died From Bullet Wounds Received in a Desperate Attempt to Escape—Rutledge Jumps From the Jail Gallery to the Stone Floor Thirty Feet Below—Rice Has a Long Sentence to Serve.

Toronto, Ont., June 8.—Of the three men, Fred Lee Rice, Thomas Jones and Frank Rutledge, extradited from Chicago to stand trial for the robbery of a bank in Aurora, Ont., Rice is the only living survivor of the trio to serve out the 21 years' imprisonment to which he was sentenced during the morning. Two tragedies have put Jones and Rutledge beyond the reach of the law. Jones died from bullet wounds received in a desperate attempt to escape from the officers who were transferring the prisoners from the courthouse to the jail Tuesday and Rutledge committed suicide during the day by jumping from the gallery in the jail to the stone court 30 feet below.

The first tragedy which startled the citizens of this city was the daring attempt made by the three prisoners to escape from the constables on Tuesday night. While the carriage containing Rice, Jones and Rutledge and two constables was proceeding from the courthouse to the jail an accomplice threw three revolvers through the cab window. The desperadoes evidently were for they acted promptly. Securing possession of the revolvers the three men opened fire upon the constables. County Constable Boyd was shot and killed. The officers returned the fire and Jones was wounded in the groin and arm. He died at the hospital. A street car conductor, whose car the burglars attempted to board, struck Rutledge over the head with a piece of iron, knocking him senseless. Rice surrendered. Rice and Rutledge were sentenced to 21 years imprisonment in Kingston penitentiary. Rutledge was being taken with another prisoner in charge of one of the jail guards to dinner about 3 o'clock. Suddenly he made a dash and springing up the stairway mounted to the gallery running around inside of the jail, 30 feet from the floor. Climbing over the railing Rutledge jumped. He fell headforemost on the stone floor, fracturing his skull. He was immediately taken to the hospital, where he died without regaining consciousness.

University of Tennessee Students and Police Come Together.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 8.—Students of the University of Tennessee and five city policemen engaged in a fight in which numerous shots were exchanged, but no one was hurt. The fight grew out of the attempt of the police to quell frequent disturbances made by students. The police were called on by the university commandant to stop the disturbances. This enraged the students, who attacked the police, firing on them from behind trees on the campus and showering them with stones. Quiet was not restored until after midnight. Another clash is feared by the police authorities.

Railroad Commissioners Elect.

San Francisco, June 8.—The National Association of Railway Commissioners elected the following officers: President, Cicero J. Lindsay, Illinois; first vice president, J. B. Bortory, South Carolina; second vice president, A. Chadbourne, Maine; secretary, E. A. Moseley, Charleston, S. C., was selected as the next meeting place and the time fixed at Feb. 1, 1902.

Preparing to Receive the Count.

Berlin, June 8.—Emperor William, it is understood, has given orders that Count von Waldersee shall be received on his return from China with unusual eclat. The military and naval attaches of various embassies, including the American, intend to join in the reception if their governments authorize them to do so.

Twenty-three Houses Burn.

Lexington, Ky., June 8.—The Otts coopershop burned during the afternoon and the fire communicated to other buildings so rapidly that it was feared for some time that the city would be laid in ashes. Twenty-three houses, mostly tenement, were totally destroyed with their contents. The loss approximates $30,000.

Charged With Smuggling.

San Juan, Porto Rico, June 8.—The schooner Let Me Pass, the property of a resident of the island of Vieques, off the east coast of Porto Rico, has been seized and two merchants have been arrested on charge of smuggling liquors and provisions from St. Thomas.

EIGHT MILLIONS IN CASH.

Hangs Upon Supreme Court's Decision in Vermillion Mine Case.

New York, June 8.—Eight million dollars in cash and possibly a much larger sum in profits, which now are only prospective, hang upon the United States court's disposition of the title to a tract of land known as "section 30," in the famous Vermillion range in Northern Minnesota.

This suit, after long litigation, now has been brought to final issue before the tribunal of last resort—the supreme court of the United States—and argument has been ordered for October. The case involves the tract which generally is believed to contain the richest deposit of Bessemer iron ore in the world. It is known to be so valuable that the United States Steel corporation, it is said, stands ready to pay $8,000,000 for the rights which will be awarded to the victor in the long struggle for ownership.

Of all who hoped to draw riches from the mine since its discovery only two interests have survived the winnowing process of law. One of the contestants is Frank Eaton, the discoverer—a man who practically is without a dollar in the world. The other is A. N. Miller, who built the Savoy hotel.

His Clothes Torn Off by Lightning.

Sparta, Wis., June 8.—Robert Merrill, son of ex-Mayor Merrill, was struck by lightning. He was standing in a barn door when struck. His clothes were torn from him and the barn set afire. Strange to say he was not rendered unconscious and was able to call for help. The fire was soon extinguished.

Steamer Northwestern Sighted.

New York, June 8.—The steamer Northwestern, the pioneer vessel of Chicago's ocean going marine, has succeeded in reaching the other side of the Atlantic safely, having been reported passing off Old Head of Kinsale, on the Irish coast, after a voyage of 44 days out of the port of Chicago, including five days delay in the St. Lawrence river.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Bishop William Rufus Nicholas of the Reformed Episcopal church in Philadelphia, is dead.

A verdict of not guilty was returned by the jury at Yonkers, N. Y., that tried Benjamin Adams, a member of the board of education of that place, on the charge of violating the law in playing golf on Sunday.

PINE COUNTY LAND GRANT.

Northern Pacific Said to Have Sold 200,000 Acres to Englishmen.

St. Paul, June 8.—The Globe says: Reports have been actively circulated for some weeks past as to the sale or proposed sale of a large tract of land in Pine county, Minn., known as the St. Paul and Duluth railroad grant, but purchased as part of the old St. Paul and Duluth company's property by the Northern Pacific road. Persistent as have been the reports in their recurrence, the officials of the Northern Pacific road have been as persistent in their denial of them. Information has now been secured, however, from a source which should be reliable and is circumstantially so complete as to warrant the belief that a sale of the land has to all intents and purposes occurred, although possibly there may remain to be performed some of those legal formalities which in law are necessary to actually consummate a great transaction.

MAIL COACH HELD UP.

Plunder Valued at $5,000 Secured by Hungarian Brigands.

London, June 8.—The Daily Express publishes the following dispatch from Vienna: "A band of brigands held up a mail coach near Retsag, Hungary, strangled the driver, maimed the guards, ransacked the mail bags and escaped with plunder valued at £5,000."

Jumped into a Tank of Blood.

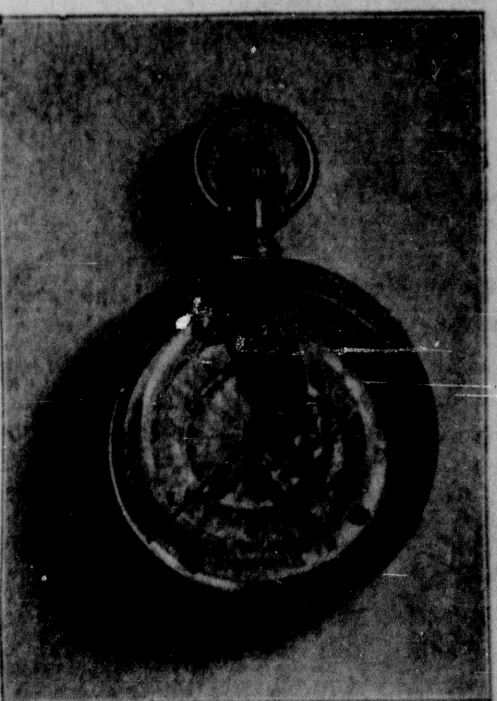

Pontiac, Mich., June 8.—Frank Taylor, a young man of Oxford, who became despondent because his sweetheart married another man, attempted to drown himself in a tank of blood in Green's slaughtering house. He was assisting in killing cattle and when the tank in which the blood was retained became full he stripped himself and jumped in. He was rescued by his companions. It is believed he was temporarily insane.

San Francisco, June 8.—The National Association of Railway Commissioners elected the following officers: President, Cleo R. Lindsay, Illinois; first vice president, J. B. Bortory, South Carolina; second vice president, A. Chadbourne, Maine; secretary, E. A. Moseley, Charleston, S. C., was selected as the next meeting place and the time fixed at Feb. 1, 1902.

Preparing to Receive the Count.

Berlin, June 8.—Emperor William, it is understood, has given orders that Count von Waldersee shall be received on his return from China with unusual eclat. The military and naval attaches of various embassies, including the American, intend to join in the reception if their governments authorize them to do so.

Twenty-three Houses Burn.

Lexington, Ky., June 8.—The Otts coopershop burned during the afternoon and the fire communicated to other buildings so rapidly that it was feared for some time that the city would be laid in ashes. Twenty-three houses, mostly tenement, were totally destroyed with their contents. The loss approximates $89,000.

Charged With Smuggling.

San Juan, Porto Rico, June 8.—The schooner Let Me Pass, the property of a resident of the island of Vieques, off the east coast of Porto Rico, has been seized and two merchants have been arrested on charge of smuggling liquors and provisions from St. Thomas.

EIGHT MILLIONS IN CASH.

Hangs Upon Supreme Court's Decision in Vermillion Mine Case.

New York, June 8.—Eight million dollars in cash and possibly a much larger sum in profits, which now are only prospective, hang upon the United States court's disposition of the title to a tract of land known as "section 30," in the famous Vermillion range in Northern Minnesota.

This suit, after long litigation, now has been brought to final issue before the tribunal of last resort—the supreme court of the United States—and argument has been ordered for October. The case involves the tract which generally is believed to contain the richest deposit of Bessemer iron ore in the world. It is known to be so valuable that the United States Steel corporation, it is said, stands ready to pay $8,000,000 for the rights which will be awarded to the victor in the long struggle for ownership.

Of all who hoped to draw riches from the mine since its discovery only two interests have survived the winnowing process of law. One of the contestants is Frank Eaton, the discoverer—a man who practically is without a dollar in the world. The other is A. N. Miller, who built the Savoy hotel.

His Clothes Torn Off by Lightning.

Sparta, Wis., June 8.—Robert Merrill, son of ex-Mayor Merrill, was struck by lightning. He was standing in a barn door when struck. His clothes were torn from him and the barn set afire. Strange to say he was not rendered unconscious and was able to call for help. The fire was soon extinguished.

Steamer Northwestern Sighted.

New York, June 8.—The steamer Northwestern, the pioneer vessel of Chicago's ocean going marine, has succeeded in reaching the other side of the Atlantic safely, having been reported passing off Old Head of Kinsale, on the Irish coast, after a voyage of 44 days out of the port of Chicago, including five days delay in the St. Lawrence river.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Bishop William Rufus Nicholas of the Reformed Episcopal church in Philadelphia, is dead.

A verdict of not guilty was returned by the jury at Yonkers, N. Y., that tried Benjamin Adams, a member of the board of education of that place, on the charge of violating the law in playing golf on Sunday.

PINE COUNTY LAND GRANT.

Northern Pacific Said to Have Sold 200,000 Acres to Englishmen.

St. Paul, June 8.—The Globe says: Reports have been actively circulated for some weeks past as to the sale or proposed sale of a large tract of land in Pine county, Minn., known as the St. Paul and Duluth railroad grant, but purchased as part of the old St. Paul and Duluth company's property by the Northern Pacific road. Persistent as have been the reports in their recurrence, the officials of the Northern Pacific road have been as persistent in their denial of them. Information has now been secured, however, from a source which should be reliable and is circumstantially so complete as to warrant the belief that a sale of the land has to all intents and purposes occurred, although possibly there may remain to be performed some of those legal formalities which in law are necessary to actually consummate a great transaction.

MAIL COACH HELD UP.

Plunder Valued at $5,000 Secured by Hungarian Brigands.

London, June 8.—The Daily Express publishes the following dispatch from Vienna:

"A band of brigands held up a mail coach near Retz, Hungary, strangled the driver, maimed the guards, ransacked the mail bags and escaped with plunder valued at £5,000."

Jumped into a Tank of Blood.

Pontiac, Mich., June 8.—Frank Taylor, a young man of Oxford, who became despondent because his sweetheart married another man, attempted to drown himself in a tank of blood in Green's slaughtering house. He was assisting in killing cattle and when the tank in which the blood was retained became full he stripped himself and jumped in. He was rescued by his companions. It is believed he was temporarily insane.

Passed Counterfeit Nickels.

Indianapolis, June 8.—In the federal court the Rev. William Wade of Valparaiso, Ind., who conducted religious meetings while in jail here, was sentenced to the Columbus (O.) penitentiary for one year and fined $1,000 for passing counterfeiting nickels.

Mr. Seelye reports a very good time and says he would not have missed the meeting for a hundred dollar bill.

Yesterday afternoon a dozen or more dirty faced, but smiling young urchins, bombarded THE DISPATCH office and one would think that a herd of hyenas had broken loose from some zoological garden. They were members of two base ball teams called the Buffaloes and the Terriers. They came to report the game of base ball played yesterday afternoon, and such a clamor and clatter, the one side insisting it was a tie and the other claiming the score was in their favor. "Say fellow," said one little duffer, "I was short stop and I knowed we could skin 'em." As near as could be learned the Buffaloes won by a score of 10 to 8.

LOST SECOND GAME.

Brainerd Boys Put Up a Rattling Good Game Yesterday Afternoon But Did Not Win.

The members of the Brainerd base ball team arrived home this morning from their Fargo trip. The boys feel as though they did not get a square deal from the umpire in the game played yesterday afternoon. They think they would have won this game but for the rank decision of the umpire in the fourth inning when he called a Brainerd man out at home plate when the Fargo catcher was four or five feet away from the base. Brainerd led by one score then, but this tied them.

The final score stood 4 to 3 in favor of Fargo. The battery for Brainerd was DeRocher and Spencer.

LYNCHING AVERTED.

Volley Fired Into a Mob Kills One and Wounds Another.

Carrollton, Ga. June 8.—The nerve of Sheriff Joseph Merrill upheld the law of the state and saved the life of a negro from a mob. In protecting the negro, who was saved from the gallows only a few hours before through the efforts of his lawyers, one life was lost and two men wounded. The arrival of the state militia averted threatened trouble and at 9 o'clock a special train bearing the negro was speeding towards Atlanta under guard. The man killed in attacking the jail was George Bennett, of Carrollton, and the wounded men are Thomas Smith, also of Carrollton, and an unknown man, presumably a farmer. Thomas S. Word, father of the murdered boy, who was in the front rank of the would-be lynchers, was not hit.

Williams, the negro who caused the trouble, was tried and found guilty of murdering Otis Word Jan. 1, 1901, and sentenced to be hanged. He was refused a new trial by Judge Harris, but his attorneys filed a bill of exceptions and carried the case to the supreme court.

A large crowd of people had come to town to witness the hanging, and when it was learned that an appeal had been taken to the supreme court, delaying the execution, there was much excited talk, which crystallized soon after in the formation of a mob. At noon the mob made an assault on the jail. They battered down the outside door, despite the warning of the sheriff, and entered the building. They made a demand on the sheriff for the key to the negro's cell, but were refused. The mob then advanced upon the sheriff and his deputies. They were told to stop or they would be fired on, but the order was not obeyed.

Posse Fired on the Crowd.

As they advanced down the corridor toward the sheriff the order was given to fire. Bennett fell, dying almost instantly, and Thomas Smith and another man fell wounded.

The unexpected flight of the sheriff and his little posse frightened the mob and they retreated outside of the jail. Sheriff Merrill at once consulted Judge Harris of the county court and it was decided to call upon Governor Candier for aid. The governor was communicated with by telephone and said he would send two companies from Atlanta as soon as they could be assembled.

During the afternoon the mob telephoned the situation to friends in the adjoining towns of Ville Rica and Temple, and made an appeal for more men to get possession of the negro. This was communicated to Governor Candier also, and the governor soon wired a proclamation to the people of the county. It was read from the steps of the courthouse at 4 o'clock by the mayor. The governor commanded the people to disperse and said the entire military and civil forces of the state would be used to enforce order if necessary. The reading of the proclamation apparently had a good effect, as many people were seen to mount their horses and leave town. The sheriff then decided to take the prisoner out of the county for safe keeping. The Atlanta militia, under command of Major Barker, arrived and escorted the negro and Sheriff Merrill to the train, which was soon speeding southward to Atlanta.

TO ESTABLISH BIG SILK FARM

Italian Finds In South Carolina a Good Field For the Industry.

Having made a success of the cultivation of tea, South Carolina is now about to establish and conduct a silk farm, says the Chicago Record-Herald. The experiment has been started by Duke de Litta, who owns and operates an extensive silk farm in southern Italy. Experiments in the culture of silk have been tried before in South Carolina on a small scale, but the Italian nobleman intends to engage extensively in silk culture, and he is confident that his experiment will prove a success.

Duke de Litta visited relatives at Charleston several years ago, and it was during this visit that he conceived the idea of engaging in silk culture in the United States. Upon his return to Italy he sent to Charleston about 1,000 cuttings of mulberry trees, which were planted on a large tract of land at Summerville, a dry, sandy pine land resort 22 miles from Charleston. The trees were planted according to the directions that he left, and they prospered. He later sent there a lot of cuttings of another variety of mulberry trees, which are less hardy of growth, but are better suited to the feeding of the worms. These latter cuttings were grafted in the stumps of the first trees and now seem to flourish as well as the original trees. The experiment shows thus far that the Italian nobleman was correct in his opinion that the climate and soil of South Carolina were adapted for the silk culture. The successful growing of the trees has led to negotiations for the purchase of additional tracts of land in the vicinity and the extension of the industry.

Duke de Litta will arrive at Charleston next October, remaining for some time to give his personal attention to the development of the farm. He will bring over several peasants from his estate, who will train the labor and lend a general supervision to the farm. It is thought that there will be no difficulty in obtaining the labor which is needed. It is proposed to use negro labor, which is plentiful about Summerville.

The children of the Presbyterian Sunday school will have full sway at the church Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock. Decorations appropriate to the occasion will be used. A pleasing program of song, responsive reading and recitation has been prepared and the sound of merry and sweet child voices will resound on this the great annual festival of the children.

W. E. Seelye has returned from Anoka where he attended the reunion of Company A, 8th Vol. Infantry, of this state, held Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Nevers of this city were also present going from there to attend the commencement exercises at Carleton college. Mr. Seelye reports a very good time and says he would not have missed the meeting for a hundred dollar bill.

Yesterday afternoon a dozen or more dirty faced, but smiling young urchins, bombarded THE DISPATCH office and one would think that a herd of hyenas had broken loose from some zoological garden. They were members of two base ball teams called the Buffaloes and the Terriers. They came to report the game of base ball played yesterday afternoon, and such a clamor and clatter, the one side insisting it was a tie and the other claiming the score was in their favor. "Say fellow," said one little duffer, "I was short stop and I knowed we could skin 'em." As near as could be learned the Buffaloes won by a score of 10 to 8.

LOST SECOND GAME.

Brainerd Boys Put Up a Rattling Good Game Yesterday Afternoon But Did Not Win.

The members of the Brainerd base ball team arrived home this morning from their Fargo trip. The boys feel as though they did not get a square deal from the umpire in the game played yesterday afternoon. They think they would have won this game but for the rank decision of the umpire in the fourth inning when he called a Brainerd man out at home plate when the Fargo catcher was four or five feet away from the base. Brainerd led by one score then, but this tied them.

The final score stood 4 to 3 in favor of Fargo. The battery for Brainerd was DeRocher and Spencer.

LYNCHING AVERTED.

Volley Fired into a Mob Kills One and Wounds Another.

Carrallton, Ga. June 8.—The nerve of Sheriff Joseph Merrill upheld the law of the state and saved the life of a negro from a mob. In protecting the negro, who was saved from the gallows only a few hours before through the efforts of his lawyers, one life was lost and two men wounded. The arrival of the state militia averted threatened trouble and at 9 o'clock a special train bearing the negro was speeding towards Atlanta under guard. The man killed in attacking the jail was George Bennett, of Carrallton, and the wounded men are Thomas Smith, also of Carrallton, and an unknown man, presumably a farmer. Thomas S. Word, father of the murdered boy, who was in the front rank of the would-be lynchers, was not hit.

Williams, the negro who caused the trouble, was tried and found guilty of murdering Otis Word Jan. 1, 1901, and sentenced to be hanged. He was refused a new trial by Judge Harris, but his attorneys filed a bill of exceptions and carried the case to the supreme court.

A large crowd of people had come to town to witness the hanging, and when it was learned that an appeal had been taken to the supreme court, delaying the execution, there was much excited talk, which crystallized soon after in the formation of a mob. At noon the mob made an assault on the jail. They battered down the outside door, despite the warning of the sheriff, and entered the building. They made a demand on the sheriff for the key to the negro's cell, but were refused. The mob then advanced upon the sheriff and his deputies. They were told to stop or they would be fired on, but the order was not obeyed.

Posse Fired on the Crowd.

As they advanced down the corridor toward the sheriff the order was given to fire. Bennett fell, dying almost instantly, and Thomas Smith and another man fell wounded.

The unexpected flight of the sheriff and his little posse frightened the mob and they retreated outside of the jail. Sheriff Merrill at once consulted Judge Harris of the county court and it was decided to call upon Governor Candler for aid. The governor was communicated with by telephone and said he would send two companies from Atlanta as soon as they could be assembled.

During the afternoon the mob telephoned the situation to friends in the adjoining towns of Ville Rica and Temple, and made an appeal for more men to get possession of the negro. This was communicated to Governor Candler also, and the governor soon wired a proclamation to the people of the county. It was read from the steps of the courthouse at 4 o'clock by the mayor. The governor commanded the people to disperse and said the entire military and civil forces of the state would be used to enforce order if necessary. The reading of the proclamation apparently had a good effect, as many people were seen to mount their horses and leave town. The sheriff then decided to take the prisoner out of the county for safe keeping. The Atlanta militia, under command of Major Barker, arrived and escorted the negro and Sheriff Merrill to the train, which was soon speeding southward to Atlanta.

Italian Finds In South Carolina a Good Field For the Industry.

Having made a success of the cultivation of tea, South Carolina is now about to establish and conduct a silk farm, says the Chicago Record-Herald. Experiments in the culture of silk have been tried before in South Carolina on a small scale, but the Italian nobleman intends to engage extensively in silk culture, and he is confident that his experiment will prove a success.

Duke de Litta visited relatives at Charleston several years ago, and it was during this visit that he conceived the idea of engaging in silk culture in the United States. Upon his return to Italy he sent to Charleston about 1,000 cuttings of mulberry trees, which were planted on a large tract of land at Summerville, a dry, sandy pine land resort 22 miles from Charleston. The trees were planted according to the directions that he left, and they prospered. He later sent there a lot of cuttings of another variety of mulberry trees, which are less hardy of growth, but are better suited to the feeding of the worms. These latter cuttings were grafted in the stumps of the first trees and now seem to flourish as well as the original trees. The experiment shows thus far that the Italian nobleman was correct in his opinion that the climate and soil of South Carolina were adapted for the silk culture. The successful growing of the trees has led to negotiations for the purchase of additional tracts of land in the vicinity and the extension of the industry.

Duke de Litta will arrive at Charleston next October, remaining for some time to give his personal attention to the development of the farm. He will bring over several peasants from his estate, who will train the labor and lend a general supervision to the farm. It is thought that there will be no difficulty in obtaining the labor which is needed. It is proposed to use negro labor, which is plentiful about Summerville.

MENACED BY BURGLARS.

Till R. D. Holden's Saloon Rifled
Of All Its Contents
Last Night.

VERY SUCCESSFUL EXECUTION.

Entered the Building With Little Ease Having Planned With Stratagem.

R. D. Holden's saloon was entered sometime during the early hours this morning before daylight began to dawn and burglars succeeded in making a very graceful exit after having rifled the till and securing $20 in change.

The burglary was a rather daring one considering the fact that the saloon is located in the heart of the city and usually the alleys and streets are pretty well patrolled by the police in these parts, but it is thought, and in fact there is not much doubt, that preliminary arrangements had been made so that when the time arrived for the execution of the deed the culprit or culprits found easy access and made their visit a quiet one.

The burglars got into the building through a window which is located in the toilet room of Mr. Holden's saloon by simply raising the lower sash without the least difficulty. As there is no indication of any battering or prying process the conclusion has been reached that the men, yesterday some time or may be several days ago, did a little missionary work on the inside. The window was seldom ever opened and small cleats were nailed in the groove above the sash on both sides so that it would be impossible to raise the window from the outside without breaking something and without a great deal of effort. Nothing has been seen of the small cleats and this also goes to show that a little pre-arrangement had been made.

Mr. Holden himself did not leave the saloon this morning until shortly after 1 o'clock, and the porter, Geo.
Harris, was around by 2:15 o'clock, so it is evident that the parties who did the crime were shadowing the genial proprietor and waiting under cover until he locked up and went home. Of course the porter did not know that anyone had been in the building when he arrived and no one was aware of the fact, so quiet and carefully had the men gone in and come out, until this morning, when William Ragen, the bartender, came on duty. He went to the till and there was no money there except one Canadian nickel piece. He at once called up Mr. Holden and asked him if he had left any change in the drawer. On being informed that about $20 had been left there, Mr.
Ragen began an investigation and soon discovered that the window above referred to was about a quarter of an inch open.

Everything in the room was otherwise undisturbed, and it is not thought that the burglars even stopped to take a "night cap." It would have been a very easy matter to have gotten away with several hundred dollars worth of goods in a short time, but they were easily satisfied and shook the dust off their feet and escaped with the money.
No arrests have been made, but the police are shadowing some suspicious characters and they may be arrested before tomorrow morning.

SKULKED AWAY WITH IT.

Two Tough Characters Flimflam a Leading Firm Out of a Pair of Trousers.

Yesterday afternoon two suspicious looking characters walked into A. G. Lagerquist's store and while one of the clerks was waiting on a customer one of the men pretended to be examining some goods in the front end of the store while the other one went to the tailor shop at the rear and succeeded in storing away under his coat a pair of trousers which had been left in the shop by E. V. Weisenberger to be repaired.

One of the men was found later and locked up on the charge of drunkenness, but the man who did the stealing has not been found. Unless the later can be found his partner who is in limbo will be released.
He gave his name as Harry Smith.

PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT.

Members of the K. P. Lodge Entertain a Large Number of Friends Last Evening.

A social function of prominence was the party and ball given last night by the members of the local lodge, Knights of Pythias, when the swagger set was out en masse.
There were about two hundred guests present. The program for the evening had been arranged with all eclat, and the very unique arrangement was a highly appreciable feature of the evening, the dance numbers throughout the evening being interspersed with musical selections vocal and instrumental.

It was quite late before the dance commenced on account of the work which the lodge performed during the early hours, when degrees were conferred on a class of candidates.

The first number on the program was a song by the Aeolian Quartette and this very popular organization most admirably reached the hearts of those present with sweet strains and beautiful harmonies. Mrs. E.
W. Crane, as usual, was heard to good advantage in a vocal selection;
Mrs. George LaBar also gave a vocal selection with exquisite taste; Mr.
Edward Hansy, always good, gave a banjo solo; Mrs. J. C. Atherton and Miss Clotilda McCullough rendered a duet which was especially pleasing; and Mr. S. F. Alderman rendered a solo with his usual good voice and remarkable satisfactoriness.

These numbers were sandwiched in with the dance program and the arrangement was especially pleasing. Dancing continued on until quite late, the dizzy whirl being executed to the beautiful strains of Whitford and Coutu's orchestra.

The banquet table was laden with palatable and relishing eatables, the same being served in very elegant style by the Rathbone Sisters. Taken all in all the event was one of the most pleasant chronicled in this city for some time.

DESPERATION

NOT LOVE,

Says the Man Who Played Important Part in Lincoln Tragedy.

CORONER'S JURY MAKES REPORT.

Several Poisons and a Razor in Effects of Mrs. Mabel Walker.

The inquest over the remains of the late Mrs. J. Irving Walker who died in Lincoln, Neb., recently, has been held and the verdict of the jury was to the effect that she came to her death by poison, and from the best information obtainable by the jury, administered by her own hands and for causes unknown.

The proceedings of the coronor's jury were quite sensational, one of the jurymen refusing throughout to agree that the deceased came to her death by poison self-administered.

J. Albert Brink, who with Mrs.
Walker agreed to take his own life, testified at length before the jury and he rehearsed the conversation between himself and the woman previous to the taking of the poison.
Being asked whether it was infatuation or desperation which caused him to take poison Brink replied:

"Desperation, sir, I don't suppose I can make you men, who have never been through a thing like this, understand just how I was wrought up, just how I felt. For days she had been talking of killing herself, telling of poison she had and ways open to ending it all. All this had its impression on me; it worked me up. I had been watching her for days; I had sent her once or twice to see her husband out of town; I had hoped that he would come and take her away; I wanted to avoid her killing herself.

"A week ago the girl threatened suicide one night, when I bid her good-night and she started for her room. I went to my room and sat down, and in a short time I got worried. I went to her room and entered. She was in bed and about her head was a towel saturated with chloroform. I snatched it away and saved her life. And ever since then I have watched her every minute, almost, to prevent her from committing suicide.

"She told me little. She said she had known Walker only twenty days when she had married him. They had parted several times during their married life and she had gone back to him. The last time they were reunited was in Sioux City, on their anniversary, the 29th of the previous month. She was with her mother at the time, and traveled half way across the continent to be with him again. I don't think it was infatuation for me. She was not despondent.
In fact she had often told me the sun had never set on the day that knew her despondent. The second day after I met her we were out driving past the asylum. Looking up at the building, she said: 'Inside of a year I'll either be in my grave or in a place like that.'"

MENACED BY BURGLARS.

Till R. D. Holden's Saloon Rifled Of All Its Contents Last Night.

VERY SUCCESSFUL EXECUTION.

Entered the Building With Little Ease Having Planned With Stratagem.

R. D. Holden's saloon was entered sometime during the early hours this morning before daylight began to dawn and burglars succeeded in making a very graceful exit after having rifled the till and securing $20 in change.

The burglary was a rather daring one considering the fact that the saloon is located in the heart of the city and usually the alleys and streets are pretty well patrolled by the police in these parts, but it is thought, and in fact there is not much doubt, that preliminary arrangements had been made so that when the time arrived for the execution of the deed the culprit or culprits found easy access and made their visit a quiet one.

The burglars got into the building through a window which is located in the toilet room of Mr. Holden's saloon by simply raising the lower sash without the least difficulty. As there is no indication of any battering or prying process the conclusion has been reached that the men, yesterday some time or may be several days ago, did a little missionary work on the inside. The window was seldom ever opened and small cleats were nailed in the groove above the sash on both sides so that it would be impossible to raise the window from the outside without breaking something and without a great deal of effort. Nothing has been seen of the small cleats and this also goes to show that a little pre-arrangement had been made.

Mr. Holden himself did not leave the saloon this morning until shortly after 1 o'clock, and the porter, Geo. Harris, was around by 2:15 o'clock, so it is evident that the parties who did the crime were shadowing the genial proprietor and waiting under cover until he locked up and went home. Of course the porter did not know that anyone had been in the building when he arrived and no one was aware of the fact, so quiet and carefully had the men gone in and come out, until this morning, when William Ragen, the bartender, came on duty. He went to the till and there was no money there except one Canadian nickel piece. He at once called up Mr. Holden and asked him if he had left any change in the drawer. On being informed that about $20 had been left there, Mr. Ragen began an investigation and soon discovered that the window above referred to was about a quarter of an inch open.

Everything in the room was otherwise undisturbed, and it is not thought that the burglars even stopped to take a "night cap." It would have been a very easy matter to have gotten away with several hundred dollars worth of goods in a short time, but they were easily satisfied and shook the dust off their feet and escaped with the money.

No arrests have been made, but the police are shadowing some suspicious characters and they may be arrested before tomorrow morning.

V. Weisenberger to be repaired.

One of the men was found later and locked up on the charge of drunkenness, but the man who did the stealing has not been found. Unless the later can be found his partner who is in limbo will be released. He gave his name as Harry Smith.

MENACED BY BURGLARS.

Till R. D. Holden's Saloon Rifled
Of All Its Contents
Last Night.

VERY SUCCESSFUL EXECUTION.

Entered the Building With Little Ease Having Planned With Stratagem.

R. D. Holden's saloon was entered sometime during the early hours this morning before daylight began to dawn and burglars succeeded in making a very graceful exit after having rifled the till and securing $20 in change.

The burglary was a rather daring one considering the fact that the saloon is located in the heart of the city and usually the alleys and streets are pretty well patrolled by the police in these parts, but it is thought, and in fact there is not much doubt, that preliminary arrangements had been made so that when the time arrived for the execution of the deed the culprit or culprits found easy access and made their visit a quiet one.

The burglars got into the building through a window which is located in the toilet room of Mr. Holden's saloon by simply raising the lower sash without the least difficulty. As there is no indication of any battering or prying process the conclusion has been reached that the men, yesterday some time or may be several days ago, did a little missionary work on the inside. The window was seldom ever opened and small cleats were nailed in the groove above the sash on both sides so that it would be impossible to raise the window from the outside without breaking something and without a great deal of effort. Nothing has been seen of the small cleats and this also goes to show that a little pre-arrangement had been made.

Mr. Holden himself did not leave the saloon this morning until shortly after 1 o'clock, and the porter, Geo. Harris, was around by 2:15 o'clock, so it is evident that the parties who did the crime were shadowing the genial proprietor and waiting under cover until he locked up and went home. Of course the porter did not know that anyone had been in the building when he arrived and no one was aware of the fact, so quiet and carefully had the men gone in and come out, until this morning, when William Ragen, the bartender, came on duty. He went to the till and there was no money there except one Canadian nickel piece. He at once called up Mr. Holden and asked him if he had left any change in the drawer. On being informed that about $20 had been left there, Mr. Ragen began an investigation and soon discovered that the window above referred to was about a quarter of an inch open.

Everything in the room was otherwise undisturbed, and it is not thought that the burglars even stopped to take a "night cap." It would have been a very easy matter to have gotten away with several hundred dollars worth of goods in a short time, but they were easily satisfied and shook the dust off their feet and escaped with the money.

No arrests have been made, but the police are shadowing some suspicious characters and they may be arrested before tomorrow morning.

SKULKED AWAY WITH IT.

Two Tough Characters Flimflam a Leading Firm Out of a Pair of Trousers.

Yesterday afternoon two suspicious looking characters walked into A. G. Lagerquist's store and while one of the clerks was waiting on a customer one of the men pretended to be examining some goods in the front end of the store while the other one went to the tailor shop at the rear and succeeded in storing away under his coat a pair of trousers which had been left in the shop by F. V. Weisenberger to be repaired.

One of the men was found later and locked up on the charge of drunkenness, but the man who did the stealing has not been found. Unless the later can be found his partner who is in limbo will be released. He gave his name as Harry Smith.

PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT.

Members of the K. P. Lodge Entertain a Large Number of Friends Last Evening.

A social function of prominence was the party and ball given last night by the members of the local lodge, Knights of Pythias, when the swaggar set was out en masse. There were about two hundred guests present. The program for the evening had been arranged with all eclat, and the very unique arrangement was a highly appreciable feature of the evening, the dance numbers throughout the evening being interspersed with musical selections vocal and instrumental.

It was quite late before the dance commenced on account of the work which the lodge performed during the early hours, when degrees were conferred on a class of candidates.

The first number on the program was a song by the Aeolian Quartette and this very popular organization most admirably reached the hearts of those present with sweet strains and beautiful harmonies. Mrs. E. W. Crane, as usual, was heard to good advantage in a vocal selection; Mrs. George LaBar also gave a vocal selection with exquisite taste; Mr. Edward Hansy, always good, gave a banjo solo; Mrs. J. C. Atherton and Miss Clotilda McCullough rendered a duet which was especially pleasing; and Mr. S. F. Alderman rendered a solo with his usual good voice and remarkable satisfactoriness.

These numbers were sandwiched in with the dance program and the arrangement was especially pleasing. Dancing continued on until quite late, the dizzy whirl being executed to the beautiful strains of Whitford and Coutu's orchestra.

The banquet table was laden with palatable and relishing eatables, the same being served in very elegant style by the Rathbone Sisters. Taken all in all the event was one of the most pleasant chronicled in this city for some time.

DESPERATION

NOT LOVE,

Says the Man Who Played Important Part in Lincoln Tragedy.

CORONER'S JURY MAKES REPORT.

Several Poisons and a Razor In Effects of Mrs. Mabel Walker.

The inquest over the remains of the late Mrs. J. Irving Walker who died in Lincoln, Neb., recently, has been held and the verdict of the jury was to the effect that she came to her death by poison, and from the best information obtainable by the jury, administered by her own hands and for causes unknown.

The proceedings of the coronor's jury were quite sensational, one of the jurymen refusing throughout to agree that the deceased came to her death by poison self-administered.

J. Albert Brink, who with Mrs. Walker agreed to take his own life, testified at length before the jury and he rehearsed the conversation between himself and the woman previous to the taking of the poison. Being asked whether it was infatuation or desperation which caused him to take poison Brink replied:

"Desperation, sir, I don't suppose I can make you men, who have never been through a thing like this, understand just how I was wrought up, just how I felt. For days she had been talking of killing herself, telling of poison she had and ways open to ending it all. All this had its impression on me; it worked me up. I had been watching her for days; I had sent her once or twice to see her husband out of town; I had hoped that he would come and take her away; I wanted to avoid her killing herself.

"A week ago the girl threatened suicide one night, when I bid her good-night and she started for her room. I went to my room and sat down, and in a short time I got worried. I went to her room and entered. She was in bed and about her head was a towel saturated with chloroform. I snatched it away and saved her life. And ever since then I have watched her every minute, almost, to prevent her from committing suicide.

"She told me little. She said she had known Walker only twenty days when she had married him. They had parted several times during their married life and she had gone back to him. The last time they were reunited was in Sioux City, on their anniversary, the 29th of the previous month. She was with her mother at the time, and traveled half way across the continent to be with him again. I don't think it was infatuation for me. She was not despondent. In fact she had often told me the sun had never set on the day that knew her despondent. The second day after I met her we were out driving past the asylum. Looking up at the building, she said: 'Inside of a year I'll either be in my grave or in a place like that.'"

ANECDOTES OF IBSEN.

Anecdotes of well known men are always in order, and the following of Henrik Ibsen, the Norwegian author and dramatist, are of timely interest:

A pretty story is told of Henrik Ibsen's wooing of his wife, says The Rural Collaborator. When he fell in love with the beautiful daughter of Pastor Thoresen, how to make known the fact to her troubled him for weeks. At last he resolved to write to her. He would come and fetch his answer the same afternoon at 5. Did the lady accept him she would be "at home," otherwise not.

At 5 o'clock he presented himself, and the maid asked him into the best room. He was very hopeful, but when he had waited half an hour awful doubts began to assail him. Still he waited on. After two hours he began to be ashamed of himself. At last he jumped up in rage and ran to the door. He was opening it when a loud peal of laughter arrested him. He turned and saw the fair head of his adored emerge from under the sofa.

Her mouth was laughing, but her eyes were filled with tears. "Oh, you dear, good fellow, to wait all this while!" she said. "I wanted to see how many minutes a lover's patience lasts. How hard the floor is! Now, help me to get out, and then we will talk." In less than a week a marriage was arranged.

Looking For Work.

"Yes, ma'am," said the ragged fat man, "I'm lookin fur work. Yer ain't got no odd jobs of scrubbin or washin fer me, did, have yer?"

"Why, you surely don't do scrubbing or work of that sort?" said the housekeeper.

"Sure not. I'm lookin fur work fur me wife."—Philadelphia Record.

He sat in a railway carriage, and his head was thickly covered with a mass of very red hair. Near him sat a man with a shining bald pate.

He playfully observed, "I suppose you weren't about when they dealt out hair?"

"Oh, yes I was," replied the bald pated gentleman, "only they offered me a lot of red hair, and I told 'em to throw it into the dust bin."—Stray Stories.

"I wouldn't fight, my good men," said the peacemaker.

"But he called me a thief, sir!" exclaimed one of the combatants.

"And he called me a lazy loafer!" cried the other.

CUBANS WILL YIELD

SUPPORTERS OF PLATT AMENDMENT BELIEVE IT WILL BE ADOPTED.

RADICALS ARE OPPOSED

The Fifteen Delegates Who Voted Favorably Are Unanimous in Opinion That the Acceptance Must Be Made Satisfactory to the United States. Threats Made of Dissolving the Convention.

Havana, June 8.—The Cuban constitutional convention will hold a meeting next Tuesday to discuss the instructions received from Washington respecting the Platt amendment. The 15 delegates who voted in favor of the amendment have had several meetings and are unanimous in thinking that the amendment must be accepted in a manner satisfactory to the United States government and they are determined to force the radical element to accept the amendment under a threat of dissolving the convention.

The radicals strongly oppose dissolution and some of the extremists admit that it would be better to comply with the Washington instructions.

CANNOT EJECT HIM.

American Steel Company Loses a Heavy Suit at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, June 8.—The claims of the American Steel company to the ownership of 33 acres of land on Jones island, estimated to be worth at least $1,000,000, were virtually denied by the jury in the case of that corporation against Alexander Budzisz, which had been on trial in the circuit court for five weeks. In spite of the fact that the company has paid taxes on the property for a quarter of a century and was conceded to have a paper title the jury decided that it could not eject the defendant, who is adjudged to have a paramount right to possession "because he and other settlers from whom he claims title had held open, exclusive and continuous possession of the property for more than the statutory period of 20 years." Many cases similar to the above are pending.

CONDEMNATION SUITS.

Land Wanted for the Proposed Naval Station in Hawaii.

Washington, June 8.—At the request of the secretary of the navy, the attorney general has instructed the United States district attorney at Honolulu to institute proceedings immediately for the condemnation of certain lands on the borders of Pearl harbor, on the island of Oahu, Hawaii, selected as a site for the proposed naval station. The naval commandant at Honolulu has been instructed to co-operate with the district attorney and render him all necessary assistance. Condemnation proceedings were necessitated by the action of the owners of the property in refusing to sell it except at what was regarded as an exorbitant price.

FATAL TEXAS SHOOTING.

Two Killed and Two Injured in a Street Fight.

Houston, Tex., June 8.—A shooting affray occurred here in which Thomas Payne and L. G. Echols were killed, J. B. Perkins was fatally and Dave Echols badly wounded. Payne's son was on trial and the two Echols had been summoned as witnesses. They met down town and after a few words the shooting began. Perkins was a brother-in-law of Payne and he and L. G. Echols fired at about the same time. Echols' bullet struck Payne and at the same instant Perkins shot and killed Echols. Dave Echols opened fire on Perkins and on young Payne. Two bullets struck Perkins and a wound in the groin will probably prove fatal. Perkins wounded Dave Echols in the arm and amputation will be necessary. The younger Payne was not hurt. The street was crowded at the time of the shooting, but no one save those directly involved were hurt. Every bullet fired struck the mark, with the exception of one which young Payne fired and which struck his father, though he was probably dead at the time.

Young to Succeed Shafter.

Washington, June 8.—Major General S. B. M. Young, who is now in this city, will assume command of the department of California on the 30th inst., relieving Major General Shafter, whose commission as major general of volunteers expires on that date.

Will Boycott American Goods.

Lumberman Disappears.

Milwaukee, June 8.—A Sentinel special from Marinette, Wis., says a sensation has been created over the disappearance of L. Gardner, superintendent of the lumber sales department of the Peshtigo Lumber company at Peshtigo. It is said Gardner is now in Canada. An examination of his accounts is being made. Another sensation has been created in the cedar world here by the disappearance of the inspectors employed by Raber & Watson of Menominee, Mich.

AN OFFICIAL MIX UP.

THE STORY OF AN APPOINTMENT TO A JUDGESHIP.

How the Man Slated For Associate Justice of New Mexico's Supreme Court First Got a Surprise and Afterwards the Office.

Late in the year 1900 it was decided by the powers in Washington that Mr. Daniel H. McMillan, ex-state senator of New York and for many years general counsel in the city of Buffalo for the Vanderbilt system of railroads, was to be appointed associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico.

This appointment had been urged not only by those who knew Mr. McMillan in the state of New York, but by lawyers of Santa Fe and of other cities in New Mexico who knew of him and desired to see him obtain the place.

Toward the close of 1901, with Governor Otero of the territory, Mr. McMillan was on a Lake Shore train speeding toward Washington. When the train stopped at Painesville, O., newsboys boarded it, and one of them called out: "All about the new supreme court judge of New Mexico. Silas Alexander appointed." The governor of the territory and Mr. McMillan looked at each other, and they bought a paper, and in that paper they read in glaring headlines that Silas Alexander of Santa Fe had received the appointment to the vacant judgeship.

Mr. McMillan the morning of his arrival in the capital went at once to the office of the secretary of war.

"How did it happen I was not appointed?" he asked.

"Why," said Mr. Root, "you are appointed."

"Why," said Mr. McMillan, "you are mistaken." And he drew from his pocket the Cleveland newspaper of the day before. Secretary Root turned all colors. "This is a mistake," he said; "an absurd, strange mistake, for I have it from the president's own lips, corroborated by Mr. Griggs, attorney general, that your name was sent yesterday to the senate for action and that the recommendation was duly signed by President McKinley."

Then the men went to the state, war and navy building and found Attorney General Griggs.

"But you have been given the appointment," said Mr. Griggs.

"Then what does this newspaper report mean?" was the reply.

The attorney general was dumfounded. "I cannot conceive what it means," he said. He tapped his bell, and when a messenger came in response he requested the attendance of the clerk in confidential relations with him, whose duty it is to fill in upon appointment blanks the names of those who are designated for appointments by the executive.

The clerk appeared. "Mr. Blank," said the attorney general, "find out at once whose name was sent yesterday to the senate with the recommendation by the president that he be appointed associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico."

"I will look," said the clerk. He soon returned with a memorandum slip in his hand.

"Mr. Alexander," he said—"the man from Buffalo."

Then a glimmering of the truth dawned upon the group. "Are you sure," said Attorney General Griggs, "that the name was not McMillan?"

"Certainly," was the reply. "The name was Silas Alexander."

The situation was remarkable, and time was important.

The president of the United States had inadvertently, by the error of a subordinate, been made to set aside the man whom he had intended to name.

There came a pause. Mr. Griggs broke the silence.

"Well, gentlemen," he said, "the fat is in the fire, but we must get it out. My subordinate has made this mistake, and I must do my best to get it rectified, and perhaps the fault is partly mine, for I told him to fill in the name of 'the Buffalo man,' and he, probably, seeing the name Alexander and identifying it with the congressman of the same name prominently known in Washington as coming from Buffalo, thought that he was to be the appointee."

And so the three men went to the president and explained matters, and as a consequence a messenger, preceded by a telephone message, sped rapidly toward the capitol with instructions to seek immediately the leader of the senate and prevent any action on the mistaken nomination and to make the statement to that leader that it was withdrawn.

The messenger arrived just as the senate was about to take action, and if the telephone had been relied upon the nomination of Silas Alexander would have been confirmed by the United States senate, and the will of the president of the republic would have been defeated.—Saturday Evening Post.

Iron, Steel and Tin Workers' Convention Adjourns.

Milwaukee, June 8.—The Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers' convention adjourned sine die after electing the following officers: President, T. J. Shaffer, Pittsburg; secretary-treasurer, John Williams, Pittsburg.

The next convention will be held at Wheeling, W. Va.

The most important work of the convention is considered to be the adoption of the so-called continuous scale plan. It is really not a continuous scale, but a continuation of the present method of annual wage settlement with some amendments. The most important of these is the continuous operation of the mills while the scale is being considered in conference and the extension of time within which an agreement must be arrived at.

Anecdotes of well known men are always in order, and the following of Henrik Ibsen, the Norwegian author and dramatist, are of timely interest:

A pretty story is told of Henrik Ibsen's wooing of his wife, says The Rural Collaborator. When he fell in love with the beautiful daughter of Pastor Thorsen, how to make known the fact to her troubled him for weeks. At last he resolved to write to her. He would come and fetch his answer the same afternoon at 5. Did the lady accept him she would be "at home," otherwise not.

At 5 o'clock he presented himself, and the maid asked him into the best room. He was very hopeful, but when he had waited half an hour awful doubts began to assail him. Still he waited on. After two hours he began to be ashamed of himself. At last he jumped up in rage and ran to the door. He was opening it when a loud peal of laughter arrested him. He turned and saw the fair head of his adored emerge from under the sofa.

Her mouth was laughing, but her eyes were filled with tears. "Oh, you dear, good fellow, to wait all this while!" she said. "I wanted to see how many minutes a lover's patience lasts. How hard the floor is! Now, help me to get out, and then we will talk." In less than a week a marriage was arranged.

"Sure not. I'm lookin fur work fur me wife."—Philadelphia Record.

The Fifteen Delegates Who Voted Favorably Are Unanimous in Opinion That the Acceptance Must Be Made Satisfactory to the United States. Threats Made of Dissolving the Convention.

Havana, June 8.—The Cuban constitutional convention will hold a meeting next Tuesday to discuss the instructions received from Washington respecting the Platt amendment. The 15 delegates who voted in favor of the amendment have had several meetings and are unanimous in thinking that the amendment must be accepted in a manner satisfactory to the United States government and they are determined to force the radical element to accept the amendment under a threat of dissolving the convention.

The radicals strongly oppose dissolution and some of the extremists admit that it would be better to comply with the Washington instructions.

CANNOT EJECT HIM.

American Steel Company Loses a Heavy Suit at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, June 8.—The claims of the American Steel company to the ownership of 33 acres of land on Jones Island, estimated to be worth at least $1,000,000, were virtually denied by the jury in the case of that corporation against Alexander Budzisz, which had been on trial in the circuit court for five weeks. In spite of the fact that the company has paid taxes on the property for a quarter of a century and was conceded to have a paper title the jury decided that it could not eject the defendant, who is adjudged to have a paramount right to possession "because he and other settlers from whom he claims title had held open, exclusive and continuous possession of the property more than the statutory period of 20 years." Many cases similar to the above are pending.

CONDEMNATION SUITS.

Land Wanted for the Proposed Naval Station in Hawaii.

Washington, June 8.—At the request of the secretary of the navy, the attorney general has instructed the United States district attorney at Honolulu to institute proceedings immediately for the condemnation of certain lands on the borders of Pearl harbor, on the island of Oahu, Hawaii, selected as a site for the proposed naval station. The naval commandant at Honolulu has been instructed to co-operate with the district attorney and render him all necessary assistance. Condemnatory proceedings were necessitated by the action of the owners of the property in refusing to sell it except at what was regarded as an exorbitant price.

FATAL TEXAS SHOOTING.

Two Killed and Two Injured in a Street Fight.

Houston, Tex., June 8.—A shooting affray occurred here in which Thomas Payne and L. G. Echols were killed, J. B. Perkins was fatally and Dave Echols badly wounded. Payne's son was on trial and the two Echols had been summoned as witnesses. Thermen met down town and after a few words the shooting began. Perkins was a brother-in-law of Payne and he and L. G. Echols fired at about the same time. Echols' bullet struck Payne and at the same instant Perkins shot and killed Echols. Dave Echols opened fire on Perkins and on young Payne. Two bullets struck Perkins and a wound in the groin will probably prove fatal. Perkins wounded Dave Echols in the arm and amputation will be necessary. The younger Payne was not hurt. The street was crowded at the time of the shooting, but no one save those directly involved were hurt. Every bullet fired struck the mark, with the exception of one which young Payne fired and which struck his father, though he was probably dead at the time.

Lumberman Disappears.

Milwaukee, June 8.—A Sentinel special from Marinette, Wis., says a sensation has been created over the disappearance of L. Gardner, superintendent of the lumber sales department of the Peshtigo Lumber company at Peshtigo. It is said Gardner is now in Canada. An examination of his accounts is being made. Another sensation has been created in the cedar world here by the disappearance of the inspectors employed by Raber & Watson of Menominee, Mich.

AN OFFICIAL MIX UP.

THE STORY OF AN APPOINTMENT TO A JUDGESHIP.

How the Man Slated For Associate Justice of New Mexico's Supreme Court First Got a Surprise and Afterwards the Office.

Late in the year 1900 it was decided by the powers in Washington that Mr. Daniel H. McMillan, ex-state senator of New York and for many years general counsel in the city of Buffalo for the Vanderbilt system of railroads, was to be appointed associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico.

This appointment had been urged not only by those who knew Mr. McMillan in the state of New York, but by lawyers of Santa Fe and of other cities in New Mexico who knew of him and desired to see him obtain the place.

Toward the close of 1900, with Governor Otero of the territory, Mr. McMillan was on a Lake Shore train speeding toward Washington. When the train stopped at Painesville, O., newsboys boarded it, and one of them called out: "All about the new supreme court judge of New Mexico. Silas Alexander appointed." The governor of the territory and Mr. McMillan looked at each other, and they bought a paper, and in that paper they read in glaring headlines that Silas Alexander of Santa Fe had received the appointment to the vacant judgeship.

Mr. McMillan the morning of his arrival in the capital went at once to the office of the secretary of war.

"How did it happen I was not appointed?" he asked.

"Why," said Mr. Root, "you are appointed."

"Why," said Mr. McMillan, "you are mistaken." And he drew from his pocket the Cleveland newspaper of the day before. Secretary Root turned all colors. "This is a mistake," he said: "an absurd, strange mistake, for I have it from the president's own lips, corroborated by Mr. Griggs, attorney general, that your name was sent yesterday to the senate for action and that the recommendation was duly signed by President McKinley."

Then the men went to the state, war and navy building and found Attorney General Griggs.

"But you have been given the appointment," said Mr. Griggs.

"Then what does this newspaper report mean?" was the reply.

The attorney general was dumfounded. "I cannot conceive what it means," he said. He tapped his bell, and when a messenger came in response he requested the attendance of the clerk in confidential relations with him, whose duty it is to fill in upon appointment blanks the names of those who are designated for appointments by the executive.

The clerk appeared. "Mr. Blank," said the attorney general, "find out at once whose name was sent yesterday to the senate with the recommendation by the president that he be appointed associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico."

"I will look," said the clerk. He soon returned with a memorandum slip in his hand.

"Mr. Alexander," he said—"the man from Buffalo."

Then a glimmering of the truth dawned upon the group. "Are you sure," said Attorney General Griggs, "that the name was not McMillan?"

"Certainly," was the reply. "The name was Silas Alexander."

The situation was remarkable, and time was important.

The president of the United States had inadvertently, by the error of a subordinate, been made to set aside the man whom he had intended to name.

There came a pause. Mr. Griggs broke the silence.

"Well, gentlemen," he said, "the fat is in the fire, but we must get it out. My subordinate has made this mistake, and I must do my best to get it rectified, and perhaps the fault is partly mine, for I told him to fill in the name of 'the Buffalo man,' and he, probably, seeing the name Alexander and identifying it with the congressman of the same name prominently known in Washington as coming from Buffalo, thought that he was to be the appointee."

And so the three men went to the president and explained matters, and as a consequence a messenger, preceded by a telephone message, sped rapidly toward the capitol with instructions to seek immediately the leader of the senate and prevent any action on the mistaken nomination and to make the statement to that leader that it was withdrawn.

The messenger arrived just as the senate was about to take action, and if the telephone had been relied upon the nomination of Silas Alexander would have been confirmed by the United States senate, and the will of the president of the republic would have been defeated.—Saturday Evening Post.

Iron, Steel and Tin Workers' Convention Adjourns.

Milwaukee, June 8.—The Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers' convention adjourned sine die after electing the following officers: President, T. J. Shafter, Pittsburg; secretary-treasurer, John Williams, Pittsburg.

The next convention will be held at Wheeling, W. Va.

The most important work of the convention is considered to be the adoption of the so-called continuous scale plan. It is really not a continuous scale, but a continuation of the present method of annual wage settlement with some amendments. The most important of these is the continuous operation of the mills while the scale is being considered in conference and the extension of time within which an agreement must be arrived at.

He tapped his bell, and when a messenger came in response he requested the attendance of the clerk in confidential relations with him, whose duty it is to fill in upon appointment blanks the names of those who are designated for appointments by the executive.

The clerk appeared. "Mr. Blank," said the attorney general, "find out at once whose name was sent yesterday to the senate with the recommendation by the president that he be appointed associate justice of the supreme court of New Mexico."

"I will look," said the clerk. He soon returned with a memorandum slip in his hand.

"Mr. Alexander," he said—"the man from Buffalo."

Then a glimmering of the truth dawned upon the group. "Are you sure," said Attorney General Griggs, "that the name was not McMillan?"

"Certainly," was the reply. "The name was Silas Alexander."

The situation was remarkable, and time was important.

The president of the United States had inadvertently, by the error of a subordinate, been made to set aside the man whom he had intended to name.

There came a pause. Mr. Griggs broke the silence.

"Well, gentlemen," he said, "the fat is in the fire, but we must get it out. My subordinate has made this mistake, and I must do my best to get it rectified, and perhaps the fault is partly mine, for I told him to fill in the name of 'the Buffalo man,' and he, probably, seeing the name Alexander and identifying it with the congressman of the same name prominently known in Washington as coming from Buffalo, thought that he was to be the appointee."

And so the three men went to the president and explained matters, and as a consequence a messenger, preceded by a telephone message, sped rapidly toward the capitol with instructions to seek immediately the leader of the senate and prevent any action on the mistaken nomination and to make the statement to that leader that it was withdrawn.

The messenger arrived just as the senate was about to take action, and if the telephone had been relied upon the nomination of Silas Alexander would have been confirmed by the United States senate, and the will of the president of the republic would have been defeated.—Saturday Evening Post.

Iron, Steel and Tin Workers' Convention Adjourns.

Milwaukee, June 8.—The Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers' convention adjourned sine die after electing the following officers: President, T. J. Shaffer, Pittsburgh; secretary-treasurer, John Williams, Pittsburgh. The next convention will be held at Wheeling, W. Va.

The most important work of the convention is considered to be the adoption of the so-called continuous scale plan. It is really not a continuous scale, but a continuation of the present method of annual wage settlement with some amendments. The most important of these is the continuous operation of the mills while the scale is being considered in conference and the extension of time within which an agreement must be arrived at.
